JOB POSTING: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ADVISOR

Working at the SADC du Haut St-Maurice means:

- Joining a warm and motivated team;
- Choosing a position adapted to your needs;
- Working just a few minutes from home, close to nature;
- Taking the time to grow and thrive;
- Contributing to the development of your community.

---

Your main challenges:

- Coordinate and support the implementation of economic development projects in collaboration with promoters, organizations, and community partners.
- Ensure the management, monitoring, and accountability reporting of the economic development programs under your responsibility.
- Represent the organization with partners and actively participate in committees and roundtables to foster strategic collaborations and advance projects.
- Support promoters, organizations, and community partners in the development and execution of projects by providing tailored advisory support based on their needs.

What we're looking for:

- Any combination of education and experience relevant to the position;
- Strong interpersonal skills and the ability to engage and mobilize partners.
- Excellent organizational skills, autonomy, and rigor in managing files and projects.
- Analytical mindset and interest in economic development issues.
- Comfortable representing the organization and collaborating with a variety of actors.

---

What we offer:

- A competitive annual salary based on your profile;
- A four-day work week;
- A group pension plan;
- A group insurance plan with employer contributions;
- And many other benefits to discover.
